

President's Message

Photo of Joy and Frank Phillips taken at Friendship Oak, Long Beach, Mississippi

The Mississippi Bar's 100th and First Female President

Leave Your Serious Side at Home and Join Your Friends for Fun in the Sun (and a little business)

You and your family are invited to attend the 2006 Annual Meeting and Summer School for Lawyers July 3 – 8 at the Sandestin Beach Hilton and Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort in Destin, Florida. The eighteenth Sandestin Summer School for Lawyers will be held on the mornings of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 3 – 5. This year's Summer School will again be co-sponsored by the Bar and the Mississippi Trial Lawyers Association. Summer School attendees can receive a full year's required 12 hours of CLE credit including the one hour ethics requirement for FY 2005 – 2006. Each afternoon will be open for participants to enjoy the many recreational opportunities at Sandestin.

Highlights of this year's Annual Meeting include "Surviving the Storm and Riding the Road to Recovery: A Reporter's Perspective" during the Young Lawyers Division General Assembly; the Welcome Reception; the "All That Jazz" President's Reception; the "Celebrate Coast-Style" Reception; Section Annual Meetings; the Mississippi Conference of Judges; Law Alumni Luncheons; the Annual Business Session; and the "Mardi Gras" Farewell Brunch.

The Bar has reserved a wide variety of accommodations, which are described in these materials. The Summer School/Annual Meeting combination is an opportunity to combine continuing legal education with a family vacation and a chance to catch up with friends. To ensure receiving the accommodations you wish and to take advantage of the advance registration discounts, please review the registration information enclosed.

I look forward to seeing you in Destin. Remember – life is a journey so enjoy the trip.

