

About the Seminar

This is the twentieth annual seminar on professional responsibility, ethics, and discipline sponsored by The Mississippi Bar. Unfortunately, legal malpractice and disciplinary sanctions are increasing. You don't have to be grossly negligent to be sued for malpractice or guilty of embezzlement to be suspended or disbarred.

Focusing on situations encountered by attorneys on a daily basis, the seminar will cover the problems confronted on a practical level and will discuss methods of their treatment and solutions, from the inception of the attorney/client relationship through its conclusion and perhaps, beyond.
