About the Seminar

The Estates & Trusts Section and the Taxation Section of The Mississippi Bar are pleased to host their 2018 Joint CLE Seminar to be held on Monday, May 7, 2018, at the Mississippi Supreme Court Courthouse in Jackson. The goal of this CLE seminar is to provide a quality 6.5 hour educational seminar featuring knowledgeable and experienced practitioners as presenters. The topics presented at this year's seminar will include an overview of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act which President Trump signed on December 22, 2017; Planning with S-Corps; Business Valuations and Taxes; Ethical Issues in Estates from 12th District Chancellor Judge Lawrence Primeaux; insights of the State Impact of Federal Tax Reform from Jan Craig with the MS Department of Revenue; an overview of practices and procedures of the MS Board of Tax Appeals by Sara Fox, Chairman; and an overview of practice before the United States Tax Court by Judge Michael Thornton. You will find attendance at this seminar to be an efficient and cost-effective method of obtaining continuing legal education. We look forward to seeing you there.
