

Ann Marie Pate received a B.S.E. in English from Delta State University before receiving her Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law. She currently practices law in Cleveland, MS. Pate is employed as an intake officer for the County Court of Bolivar County where she spent several years prior working as a Guardian ad Litem while operating a private family law practice. Her previous experience includes working as a prosecutor for the Mississippi Department of Human Services child support division where she was awarded the attorney of the year designation in 2011. Ann Marie is involved in a variety of volunteer organizations having served on the board of directors of Crosstie Arts Council, Delta Arts Alliance, the Community Counseling Center and the Cleveland chapter of the Junior Auxiliary. She is also an active member of both the local and statewide Bar, currently serving as President of the Bolivar County Bar Association and President-Elect of the Mississippi Bar Young Lawyers' Division. She also sits on the board of bar commissioners. Pate serves as a member of the Board of Review for United States Swimming and has served as the past national chair of that board. Ann Marie is married to Brady Pate, and they have one son, Mabry.